

GENESIS 10

Noah's Children

<sup>1</sup> Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. They had sons born to them after the flood.

father was dead, they said, “What if Joseph carries a grudge? What if he decides to pay us back for all the evil that we did to him?”

<sup>16</sup> So they sent a messenger<sup>xvii</sup> to Joseph who said, “Before your father died, he commanded us,

“Please forgive the trespass<sup>xviii</sup> of your brothers and their sin.<sup>xix</sup> For they did evil to you. So now we ask you,

‘Forgive the trespass of the servants of the Elohim of your father.’ ” ” ”

Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>18</sup> And his brothers also went and fell down before his face. They said, “Look! We are your servants.”

<sup>19</sup> But Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Am I in the place of Elohim?<sup>xx</sup> <sup>20</sup> But as for you, you devised<sup>xxi</sup> evil against me. But Elohim meant it for good. He did it to bring about this present deliverance, to keep many people alive. <sup>21</sup> Now therefore, don’t be afraid. I will provide for you<sup>xxii</sup> and your little ones.<sup>xxiii</sup>”

He comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

Joseph Dies

<sup>22</sup> So Joseph lived in Egypt with his father’s family. Joseph lived 110 years. <sup>23</sup> And Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third generation. They set the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, on Joseph’s knees.

<sup>24</sup> Then Joseph said to his family, “I will die soon. Elohim will surely visit you and bring you out of this land to the covenant<sup>xxiv</sup> land that He promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

<sup>25</sup> Joseph made the children of Israel promise, saying, “Elohim will surely visit you. So promise me that you will carry<sup>xxiv</sup> my bones up from here to Canaan.”<sup>xxv</sup>

<sup>26</sup> So Joseph died, being 110 years old. They embalmed him and put him in a coffin in Egypt.

<sup>i</sup> The word גוי (goy) refers to a nation, often Gentile. It highlights collective rebellion against Yahweh. Unlike גֵּר (gēr), a sojourner protected under Israel’s law, or תֹּשֵׁב (toshav), a resident alien with limited rights, נָקֵרִי (nokhrī) and זָרָ (zār) imply foreigners more distant or hostile to Israel’s covenant.

<sup>iii</sup> The Hebrew root חָלַל (cha-lal') means begin. Elsewhere, this root often carries negative connotations, such as a plague (Num 16:47), to defile (Gen 49:4), to afflict (Judg 16:19), to profane (Lev 18:21), to kill (Judg 20:31), or to violate an agreement (Num 30:2). Nimrod began a course that set him in opposition to God. Josephus tells us that Nimrod urged people to rely on their own power rather than on God. He built a tower to defy God’s authority. See Josephus, Antiquities of the Jews, 1.4.2-3.

<sup>v</sup> Most translators will interpret the Hebrew phrase לְפָנֵי יְהוָה as “before the LORD.” This is normal and right. But in the right context, it can carry the idea of opposition. In 1 Samuel 15:33, Samuel slays Agag “before the LORD,” and it clearly reflects judgment. In Genesis 6:11, the earth is “filled with violence before God” (לְפָנֵי קָרְבָּן), which conveys a morally negative presence — corruption seen in God’s sight. In Numbers 16, the rebels stand before the LORD but in open defiance. Applying this to Genesis 10:9, Nimrod’s fame as a “mighty hunter” reflects not just physical prowess but arrogance or rebellion. So “before the LORD” could easily be read as “in defiance of the LORD.”

<sup>vi</sup> Babel means “confusion.” However, there is a wordplay with the Akkadian “Bab” which means gate or portal. Thus, Bab-El implies “portal to god” in a negative sense. Bab-El was the beginning of an organized world system against God. They were trying to effect a system of worship (portal or gate) to a new god.

<sup>xi</sup> The Jebusites are the first of a list of nine tribes that have no patriarch listed. The Hebrew word מִשְׁפָּחָה (mishpawkhaw) means tribes or families. Mishpawkhaw also has a wider sense in being a “different” kind of tribe. It is possible that it can refer to a different species. They have no patriarchal father because they are likely to be רְפָאִים (Rephaim).

xii This is modern-day Lebanon, Israel, and parts of Jordan and Syria.

xiii The word גוי (goy) refers to a nation, often Gentile. It highlights collective rebellion against Yahweh. Unlike גֵּר (gēr), a sojourner protected under Israel's law, or תֹּשֶׁב (toshav), a resident alien with limited rights, נָכְרִי (nokhrī) and זָרָ (zār) imply foreigners more distant or hostile to Israel's covenant.

xiv The time period overlaps with Genesis 11. It is possible that the division here refers to the division of languages at Babel and the subsequent scattering.

xv The list totals seventy nations (See also 1 Chron 1). 26 are from Shem. 30 are from Ham. 14 are from Japheth. Seventy people also went to Egypt with Jacob. There are three different counts of those who went to Egypt. Genesis 46:26 refers to 66. Genesis 46:27 refers to 70 by adding Jacob, Joseph, Manasseh, and Ephraim. Acts 7:14 refers to 75 by adding 5 grandsons.

xvi Deut 32:8-9 shows how God divided rule over the nations into 70 areas. The number of "the angelic sons of God" is the same number as "the sons of Israel." God kept Israel, both the land and His chosen people, for Himself. The fact that the Nephilim appear in God's land is an open act of defiance and rebellion. The cursed angels are doing everything possible to thwart God's plan of redemption. Remember! They do NOT have to defeat God. All they need is a stalemate, a legal exception, or a covenantal concession. They need a way to make sure Hosea 5:15 does not happen.

xvii The Hebrew root הַזְצָרָה means command. This is strong language. A command can come by a messenger. A command can also be thought of as a word or a message.

xviii The Hebrew is עַבְעָדָה. The root means a revolt. Synonyms include rebellion, transgression, trespass, and guilt/punishment/offering of transgression. A transgression is crossing the line. Sin is missing the target. Iniquity is something twisted.

xix The Hebrew root הַתְּעַטָּה (hat-ta-ath') means sin and sin offering. Synonyms include sinful, sinner, punishment for sin, and purification of sins. A transgression is crossing the line. Sin is missing the target. Iniquity is something twisted. As a theological word-picture, the Het (ה) suggest enclosure or a boundary, picturing separation or misalignment. Tet (ת) conveys something inward or hidden, reflecting the internal nature of sin. The Aleph-Tav (תְּ) is a picture of Jesus. Together, the word picture portrays sin as an inward corruption and separation from God. At the same time, it points toward the divinely appointed act (Jesus) that marks, resolves, and completes the matter.

xx Romans 12:19.

xxi The Hebrew root בְּשָׁרֶם means consider, count, devise, esteem, invent, plot, reckon, think.

xxii The Hebrew is מְכֹנֶה (Aleph-Tav-Kaf-Mem). This is a pronoun. Since it is not the two letter Aleph-Tav, it has no red underline. But it is a special variation of the Aleph-Tav. Here, it is in parallel with the next occurrence of the Aleph-Tav.

xxiii The Hebrew root is נְזִין (Zayin-Aleph-Tav). Its basic meaning is to cut, either as a blessing or a judgment. This translation routinely translates this 3-letter word in terms of covenant. See the article "The Aleph-Tav."

xxiv The Hebrew is מִתְּלַעֲגָה. It is a Hiphil Sequential Perfect. It relates sequentially to the oath in the first part of the verse.

xxv "To Canaan" is implied from the context. See Joshua 24:32.
